

ERASMUS+

A TRANSLATION WORKSHOP:

POETRY WITH NO BORDERS

THE GOALS OF OUR WORKSHOP TODAY ARE...

- to work together in small groups
- to immerse into English language
- to practise speaking, reading, listening in English
- to have fun :-)

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

- each group gets a piece of poetry in English
- it is a poem by a Slovene author BORIS A. NOVAK
- your job is to translate it into your own language:
into Spanish, Portuguese or into Polish
- you can use the computers and your phones or any other resources in the library (dictionaries ...)
- our lovely students from the 3rd year can take you downstairs to the canteen if you wish

WHAT COMES TO YOUR MIND ...

BORDERS

GET INTO GROUPS ...

- 4-5 people in one group
- get together
  - around 1 computer
  - go to the canteen
  - go to the library
- 1 sheet of paper with the poem “Borders”
- write the translation of the poem next to the English one
- you have approximately 40 minutes to complete your task
- come back to class, share your work and participate in a collaborative reading in different languages